MONSTERS OF AEN'VARETH

SCENE ONE:

Description:A Witcher passes by a small village in Povis. Wooden houses, narrow paths, and everything around is covered in deep snow. Despite the cold, merchants sell colorful fruits and fresh fish. In the middle of the village stands an Elven rune column that looks completely out of place.

Dialogue(Witcher): Hmm… Strange. I have never seen a land so blessed in such a cruel winter. The orchards still yield their fruit. The land looks dead enough to bury, yet what it gives remains fresh.

Description: Behind the merchants, there is a stone bridge connecting two lands separated by a river. On the bridge and along both sides of it, soldiers wander restlessly—until the Witcher passes by.

Dialogue(Sergeant Ivar Ruden): Witcher! Witcher, we need your help! Our troops are being killed by… by a monster! My soldiers and I are here to inspect the horror, but so far we've had no luck. I've heard you Witchers can use magic to find the killer! That's… isn't that why you have those… cat eyes? So, Witcher, will you help us?

Choices:

1. Once, an old Witcher told me it's a matter of gold. (Go to, SCENE TWO)
2. Too cold to kill a monster today… (The Witcher leaves the conversation)

SCENE TWO:

Dialogue(Witcher): Once, an old Witcher told me that it is a matter of gold to kill a monster. Do you know what kind of monster we are trying to kill?

Dialogue(Sergeant Ivar Ruden): Ugly things! Long teeth, claws, howling like demons in the mist...

Dialogue(Witcher): Like every other beast. Inhales.

Dialogue(Sergeant Ivar Ruden): My men were killed just ahead! It would be great if you could come and check what kind of monsters are attacking us.

Dialogue(Witcher): This close to a settlement? It seems the abundance of your village hasn't reached the woods. Show me the way.

Description: Sergeant, Witcher, and four soldiers move forward on the bridge. After the bridge, they don't follow the path but dive into the forest.

Dialogue(Sergeant Ivar Ruden): My soldiers were trying to move some weapons to the north. There are some rumors about the Elven rebels.

Dialogue(Witcher): I thought Povis and Kovir were neutral in the war and equal to every kind of being.

Dialogue(Sergeant Ivar Ruden): It is, of course. To protect our lands and order, we will do everything. It is not about race, but the people and their actions.

Description: They arrive at an open area where three soldiers are standing near a broken weapon van.

Dialogue(Witcher): Those men seem alive to me.

Dialogue(Sergeant Ivar Ruden): Ah, and they say Witchers have no feelings, let alone humor. Unfortunately, those damn monsters took my men's bodies. But we don't know where Witcher uses his senses. There are blood spots on the ground, starting from the broken van and going deep into the forest.

Dialogue(Witcher): There! There is blood everywhere.

Description: Witcher follows the blood into the forest. Moving forward, the howling of wolves is heard. Wolves surround the forest. They are green hound-dog creatures (like in Witcher 1) and attack the Witcher.

Dialogue(Witcher): Watch out!

Description: Witcher draws her sword. Fight sequence between Witcher and soldiers versus creatures.

Description: After they killed the monsters characters talk while walking forward, following the blood.

Dialogue(Sergeant Ivar Ruden): In the name of Melitele! What the hell were those creatures?

Dialogue(Witcher): They are hounds, cursed spirits of dogs. But they are not common creatures. Something odd is going on with your village.

Dialogue(Sergeant Ivar Ruden): It must be some evil wizard or witch! Don't worry, Witcher, I will pay what it's worth. Povis has all the gold needed to kill these monsters.

Description: After following the blood, they go up toward a hill. At the top of the hill, there is a large, destroyed Elven cemetery. There are hounds around the cemetery, but not many. When they enter the cemetery, they see a caped man and four bodies next to him.

Dialogue(Sergeant Ivar Ruden): There! Witcher! The monster! You have to slay him before he kills us all!

Dialogue(Elven Mage): Me? I am no monster! I am doing everything to protect my lands! My holy cemetery! But you grasping people—you are the real monsters! This should be a place of peace! Povis should have been a place where we live together! But you... you and your men came to our secret lands to steal, to pillage! We just wanted to live in peace! You brought war to this land, Sergeant—not my kin!

Dialogue(Sergeant Ivar Ruden): Kill him, Witcher! Kill the witch, and I give you my word—you will be filled with the gold of Povis! Just kill him!

Choices:

1. You are a racist bastard, nothing else (Go to SCENE THREE)
2. I choose to help no evil (Go to SCENE FOUR)
3. I want to listen to the whole story before I act. (Go to SCENE FIVE)
4. The price is 300 oren (Go to SCENE SIX)

SCENE THREE:

Dialogue(Witcher): You are a racist bastard, nothing else! Either you leave the Elven alone, or you get ready to face the consequences!

Dialogue(Sergeant Ivar Ruden): They are here as refugees! They steal our land, they live off it, but when it's time to share what they have, we are the racists?! You are no different than those cheap souls, Witcher. Attack!

Description: There is combat—soldiers versus the Witcher and the Elven mage.

Dialogue(Elven Mage): Thank you, Witcher. You saved me!

Dialogue(Witcher): They will be back with more men. I won't be here to save you every time. You and your kin should move somewhere else. Take your belongings and be on your way. That is my recommendation.

Dialogue(Elven Mage): I am the only mage who could stood for the people. Therefore, they already gone. I am here to take what is ours.

Dialogue(Witcher): How do you think you will take the pillar and bring it with you?

Dialogue(Elven Mage): Laughs The pillars was there only as a decoration. The core of the magic is the crystals, idiots have no knowledge of the magic. They took the whole pillar.

Dialogue(Witcher): What the crystals do?

Dialogue(Elven Mage): They were used to give life to nature. Their main purpose was to maintain the green and the beauty of the cemetery. I have all of them except one. And it is in the pillars that those Bloede Dh'oine stole. I need that last crystal I can't go and take it from the village but... Can... can you help me, Witcher?

Choices:

1.You should be grateful you are still alive. (Go to SCENE SEVEN)

2.What will I get in return? (Go to SCENE EIGHT)

SCENE FOUR:

Dialogue(Witcher): I choose to help no evil. The war is between you two. One side is stealing, the other is killing. Like my father always said, if I have to choose between evil and a lesser evil, I would rather choose none.

Description: Witcher goes her own way while the others fight. Monsters, summoned by the Elven man, attack the soldiers. While the fight goes between two side, Witcher needs to fin d her own way out.

SCENE FIVE:

Dialogue(Witcher): I would like to hear the whole story before I act.

Dialogue(Sergeant Ivar Ruden): There is nothing to listen about! They first invaded our lands and now they are killing our men!

Dialogue(Elven Mage): Why you are not telling her the reason? Witcher, we were living in those lands for centuries, we had no problem with the humans. But those Thieves stole what is ours! Our pillars of the Cemetery is there to keep the land of the death fresh, the kings and the valuable people of my kin are burried there! It is our tradition but those humans stole the pillars! Just like a joke they put it in the middle of their village, let alone feeling guilty about the theft, they were feeling pride by showing what they did! They are the real monsters and Thieves! Not us! We just want back what is belong to us!

Dialogue(Sergeant Ivar Ruden): While you are using it to embarding your dead bodies our people are dying by hunger! Winter has come! It is not easy to find enough food! Kids are dying let alone the eldery! We need that pillar! Witcher Help us to kill him or he won't stop attackin our man!

Choices:

1. You elven are always greedy.(Go to SCENE THIRTEEN)
2. The pillars belongs to Elven.(Go to SCENE FOURTEEN)
3. It is between you. I am not part of it(Go to SCENE FIFTEEN)

SCENE SIX:

Dialogue(Witcher): The price is 300 oren. If you want me to kill him, that is my price.

Dialogue(Sergeant Ivar Ruden): Done!

Dialogue(Elven Mage): You are worse than the things you hunt Zireael. You have no honor of Gwynbleidd! You will die by side of the greedy humans!

Description: Witcher fights in the same side with the Sergeant against Elf. There are 8 hounds in the beginning. Until the elf dies he continues to spawm them. When the fight is over Sergeant walks towards to Witcher.

Dialogue(Sergeant Ivar Ruden): Thank you Witcher for helping us. What you did was the right thing. You saved innocent kids, women, hell you saved all the village. Even tho you did it for money. Thank you Witcher.

SCENE SEVEN:

Dialogue(Witcher): You should be Grateful you are still alive. I saw what the magic can do. Stop being greedy like humans. You got enough for you and your people. Let one peace to be at humans hands. They need the nature to stay alive too.

Dialogue(Elven Mage): Inhales Yes Witcher, maybe you are right. Still thank you for your help. I... I dont have the gold soldiers would offer you but I have an Elven runes that... we wont be using. It will bring life to you, yes even a mutant like you. Take it Zireael. Farewell.

SCENE EIGHT:

Dialogue(Witcher): The thing you want from me, it is in the middle of the Village. I can not just go and simply take it. It will be hard to steal their Wealth.

Dialogue(Elven Mage): Ours! It wasn’t theirs in the first place! They are...

Dialogue(Witcher): Calm down. What I am saying is the magical stone you seek is helping the villagers who are suffering, craving for food, trying to feed their family. So they are protecting it. my question is What I will get in Return? Since I will be risking my life.

Dialogue(Elven Mage): Fair, I willl give you the sword of Elven king. Purely made by silver to slay the monsters.

Choices:

1. Not worth it.(Go to SCENE NINE)
2. I can use a new sword. Meet me under the bridge at night.(Go to SCENE TEN)

SCENE NINE:

Dialogue(Witcher): No, Not worth it. I wouldn't risk my life over a damn sword. If you want it that much you can go and take it by Yourself.

Dialogue(Elven Mage): You are afraid? How? I thought Witchers don't have any emotions.

Dialogue(Witcher): It is not fear. I just do not think a sword worth that much. I would rather to slay few drowners to buy me a new sword.

Dialogue(Elven Mage): How dare you? What I am offering is a... You know what Zirael, you don't even deserve the sword. I will get it myself. I don't want your cowards hands to touch something like that! It should be held by someone who knows its worth.

Dialogue(Witcher): Farewell.

Description: Witcher goes in her way. Away from the even, while the Elven swears and disappears inside the dark forests.

SCENE TEN:

Dialogue(Witcher): I can use a new sword. I know the ability of the Elven Smiths and with their own artistic way, what kind of swords they are making for their kings. I would be honored to have one. We will meet at midnight, Meet me under the bridge.

Dialogue(Elven Mage): Thank you Witcher. Your words means lot to me. I will be there tonight.

Description: Elf starts to walk. Goes towards the Cemetery, sits there in a camping era. In the gameplay section, Witcher would go back to the village, Sees there are men waiting in front of the pillar.

Choices:

1. Step aside, I need to take something from the pillar[USES AXII](Go to SCENE ELEVEN)
2. The pillar doesn't belong to you. I am here to return it to its owner. (Go to SCENE TWELVEN)

SCENE ELEVEN:

Dialogue(Witcher): Step aside, I need to take something from the pillar.

Description: Witcher does her spell. The soldiers move aside to let her pass. Witcher goes and takes the magical stone from the pillar. Then goes under the bridge, waits until it is midnight.

Dialogue(Witcher): Here is the stone you wanted. Before I want to give this to you I would like to remind you that you are causing death. The people on this village will die starving. If you dont care, if you really are a monster who chooses to take a relic when it can be used for feeding the people.

Dialogue(Elven Mage): I am doing it to get a relic that belongs to my kin for more than a thousand years, and you? You are doing it to get a sword. I am not sure which one of us is the monster here. You are in no position to give me a lecture Witcher so stop. Just give me the relic and take the sword.

Description: Witcher gives the stone, Takes the sword with himself.

Dialogue(Elven Mage): Farewell Witcher. Never to see you again.

SCENE TWELVE:

Dialogue(Witcher): The pillar and what is inside is not belong to you humans. I am here to return it. So I would kindly ask you to leave it. I don't want to have blood marks on my armor.

Dialogue(soldier): We are four, you forgot how to count Witcher? Boys get 'er.

Description: The combat starts between the Witcher and the soldiers. People ran around. After Witcher killed the soldiers she goes and takes the stone. Goes to under the bridge and meditate there or meditate and go there. Elf comes at midnight.

Dialogue(Witcher): Here is the stone, but it wasn't easy to pick it. I had some problems.

Dialogue(Elven Mage): I can see that by the blood on your uniform. But it was for a good cause. You saved the stolen item and returned it to its owners. What you did was the right thing. You are a good person.

Dialogue(Witcher): I did my part. Now I want the sword.

Dialogue(Elven Mage): The sword is inside the cemetery. Here is the key of the main door. Inside the kings tomb you will see it. Take it and use it well. I hope our path will cross again, farewell

Description: Witcher goes to cemetery, inside there are lots of different tombs and rooms. One of the rooms have a dead body. On that dead body there is a letter of the king which explains that he is killed by his own sword.

Description: In the edge there is a elven king statue and big tomb. Witcher goes and open the tomb. Inside there is a skeleton and a sword. Witcher gets the sword and the spirit of the king wokes up. Only way to harm the spirit is to use his own sword.

SCENE THIRTEEN:

Dialogue(Witcher): You Elven are always greedy. You can't see the harm you are doing to other races, you are too much thinking about the heritage and your relics, your arts. They are not more important than a single soul. They are starving, I am not letting them die of hunger just for a Cemetery deoration.

Dialogue(Elven Mage): I will kill you all if it is what I have to do! I will make you all suffer. Lets see if you going to like restless spirits.

Description: The combat begans, Soldiers help Witcher to take the elf down. Elf summons not just the hounds but also the wraiths of elves.. Until elf is killed, he continiues to summon them. Elf dies in the end.

Dialogue(Sergeant Ivar Ruden): Thank you Witcher... I was thinking you as a emotionless creatures but it seems like you have more feeling than most of the men and Elven on the continent. You saved our land, as return here, take this 400 oren.

Dialogue(Witcher): Farewell Sergeant.

Dialogue(Sergeant Ivar Rude): Farewell! I hope destiny will make us our prth cross again!

SCENE FOURTEEN:

Dialogue(Witcher): The pillars belongs to Elven. It doesn't matter what you are using it for. It is your land, it was your choice to settle here. If the winter is causing you to starve, it is your own problem. So either leave the pillars to its owners or get ready to be slayed.

Dialogue(Sergeant Ivar Ruden): You Witchers are emotionsless bastards. Rumours was right about you! Kill them. Kill'em both.

Description: There is a combat, soldiers versus Witcher and the Elven mage.

Dialogue(Elven Mage): Thank you Witcher. You saved me!

Dialogue(Witcher): They will be back with more man. I wont be here to save you everytime. You and your kin should move somewhere else. Take your belongings and be on my way. That is my Recommendation.

Dialogue(Elven Mage): Others are already left. I am here to take the Crystals in our Ancestors' Cemetery. It was used to give life to the nature. I have all except one. They stole it to use it on their lands. As you can see I can't return and bring it back. Can... Can you help me Witcher?

Choices:

1. You should be Grateful you ar still alive.(Go to SCENE SEVEN)
2. What I will get in Return?(Go to SCENE EIGHT)

SCENE FIFTEEN:

Dialogue(Witcher): It is between you two. I dont want to be a part of it. You have the riight to have your own legacy, even tho you are going to use it for something useless like taking care of a damn Cemetery. And you have the right to act in order to save your people, that is your job. But I choose to help no evil. The war is between you two. One side is stealing other is killing, like my father always says, If ı have to choose between the evil and lesser evil I would rather choose none.

Description: Witcher goes her own way while the others fight. Monsters, summoned by the Elven man, attack the soldiers. While the fight goes between two side, Witcher needs to fin d her own way out.
